Dear Mabel:

All of us at Casa Blanca Realty & Investments, Inc want to thank you and your Program for your unpararell support and inform you of the great results of advertising in your program have had for us.

The participation in your program not only have being exposed us to a new level of prospect customers, but to a new level of people focused in succeed and performed.

The number of calls and the follow ups on those calls have been great.

For the first time we have been experienced the growth and the need to excel of our Latino Community.

The participation in your program has been a wonderful marketing tool that has opened up for us new venues to market our services.

Sincerely and with profound appreciation we want to recognize your support and understanding and the impact that your advice and suggestions have in your public; they profess an extreme loyalty to you and your program.

Looking forward to have a long and profitable relationship ahead of us.
